It's a pretty simple effect to pull off, though I admit alc59 put some seriously good effort into it.

This is about 15mins of work and I obviously wasn't trying that hard.

EDIT: I need to point out that I am not downplaying the amazing work that alc59 did on that image. That looks great. I was pointing out to others that the initial effect is very easy to pull off with a filter. alc59 will have to go into detail how s/he got it looking that good, though I'm pretty sure I know.

COOL! animated puzzles.
Nifty idea.

Server error with that tutorial link by the way.
